THE SHEPHERD BRASS QUINTET

MACK GUDERIAN, Artist Teacher of Trumpet at The Shepherd School of Music and Associate First Trumpet with the Houston Symphony Orchestra, received his Bachelor of Music degree from the Texas Christian University and his Master of Music degree from North Texas State University. He formerly was First Coronetist with the U. S. Army Band, stationed in Washington, D. C. and most recently held the position of Second Trumpet with the Dallas Symphony. Mr. Guderian has been a faculty member at Dallas County Junior College and Southern Methodist University.

Born in New York City, RICHARD SCHAFFER did preparatory study at the Juilliard School of Music before entering the Eastman School of Music where he received his Bachelor of Music in performance and education in 1963. Mr. Schaffer graduated from Catholic University in 1967 with a Master of Music degree. His performing experience includes work with the Eastman Wind Ensemble, the Eastman Philharmonia, The Rochester Philharmonic, the U. S. Marine Band, and the Houston Symphony Orchestra where he is presently Assistant Principal Trumpet.

THOMAS BACON, Principal Hornist with the Houston Symphony Orchestra and Artist Teacher of Horn at The Shepherd School of Music, was formerly the Solo Hornist with the Berlin Radio Symphony. Also an active soloist, he has made numerous concert appearances throughout Europe, Africa, South, Central and North America. He formerly held first horn positions with the Syracuse Symphony and the Detroit Symphony.

DAVID WATERS was awarded his Bachelor of Music Education from the University of Houston in 1962 and his Master of Music from the University of Texas in 1964. Mr. Waters received instruction with artist-teachers of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, the New York Philharmonic, and the Metropolitan Opera Orchestra. He has played professionally with a number of dance bands, show orchestras, stage bands, and jazz ensembles, in addition to playing with the Austin Symphony, the National Orchestral Association in New York City and the North Jersey Wind Symphony. Mr. Waters is Bass Trombonist with the Houston Symphony and Artist-Teacher of Trombone at The Shepherd School of Music.

WARREN DECK was born in Baltimore, Maryland, and was a scholarship student at the University of Michigan from 1972 to 1975. Winner of the Concerto Competition at the University of Michigan in 1974, Mr. Deck has recorded for Golden Crest Records and was Artist-in-Residence for the Grand Rapids Symphony from 1974 to 1976. Mr. Deck has been associated with the Aspen Music Festival since 1973 and is currently tuba player for the Houston Symphony Orchestra and Artist-Teacher of Tuba at The Shepherd School of Music.
